SUBJECT: State Farm Claim Number 75-A954-439.

Ⓚ Getting your entire company to claim that Michael Laham is at fault for the car accident that we were involved in on 3/26/05 based on pure hear-say, which is your irrational mentality that "Well everybody says so, so it must be true", does not make the truth go away. The hard evidence/wounds on our car clearly show, via our photos and State Farm photos that the car that claimed to have hit our car - a 1991 Blue Honda Civic License Plate Number 2YAD185 - could NOT have possibly hit our car.

Ⓚ Ignoring the fact that this Blue Honda Civic could NOT have made WHITE paint wounds on our car because it is blue, not white, does not make the truth go away. Ignoring the fact that this Blue Honda Civic could not have made blue paint wounds on our car, because this 1991 model has a protruding bumper that blocks its body from being able to make contact with our car, does not make the truth go away.

Ⓚ The truth is that Michael Laham is NOT at fault for the accident of 3/26/05 and therefore did not run a red light. And that will always be the truth. But, you obviously do not care what the truth is.

You never answered our questions that we asked you as to why Yvette Gomez, during our live interview with her, asked us the following very invasive questions that have nothing whatsoever to do with the car accident that we were involved in on 3/26/05. Why were we asked these questions?!?!? We DEMAND an answer. If anything happens to Michael Laham at his place of work, we will hold YOU responsible!!!

1. What is your position at Boeing?
2. Who is your immediate Supervisor?
3. Who do you report to?
4. Do you take medication?
5. Why don't you live in any one place more than one year?
