To Natasha A. Grof,

We came to you for legal guidance which is why a lawyer is also referred to as a LEGAL COUNSELOR. Such guidance would include you inquiring about our particular situation so that you could offer us a specific approach as to how to make immigration to Canada happen. Instead, you a) gave us information overload and about things that were not relevant to us and b) did not supply us with the particular website addresses necessary for us to implement our specific individual plans and c) advised us to go on the internet to find out what the process of immigration entails and gave us the general overall phrase "Citizenship and Immigration Canada", to plug into a search engine. The Canadian Consulate in Seattle, Washington USA does that for FREE, and as we had already told you, "been there, done that, no workie". As far as your suggestion that we look for information on ancestry as a way to immigrate to Canada, well, none exists. We did not pay you to tell us things that are non factual or "maybe-mights". Is this why you charge a $250.00 retainer fee BEFORE you see your clients instead of AFTER they have already seen you? It is amoral and unethical for you to take money for services that are NOT rendered. Thusly, we will not be doing any more business with you with regard to us seeking additional legal counsel to assist us in the Canadian immigration process. Good bye and good riddance to you. Please refrain from sending us any correspondence regarding the above as we are sending ours to you from a public FAX machine not our own private FAX machine so we will not be able to receive any.

Most Sincerely Yours,

Elana Laham
