

MUTUAL PROTECTION ORDER

WHY I BELIEVE IT IS NECESSARY TO EXTEND THE MUTUAL PROTECTION ORDER AGAINST SUSANA VEXLER FOR THE FOLLOWING REASON:

A) Susana Vexler violated court orders by leaving her trash on my side of the hallway.

On May 14, 2017, Judge William Hamed ruled a verdict for a Mutual Protection Order between Susana Vexler and Elana Laham, which states the following:

“We agree with the court’s recommendation that an administrative order be issued prohibiting either party from...placing garbage in the section next to the other’s apartment door...”

“This order shall be in effect for 3 months from now.”

(See A Verdict Mutual Protection Order by Judge William Hamed dated May 14, 2017)

1) June 16, 2017, Susana Vexler put her trash on my side of the hallway.

(See photos #7A and #7B of the trash Susana Vexler left on my side of the hallway)

2) On June 25, 2017, I filed a Police Report against Susana Vexler for violating court orders by leaving her trash on my side of the hallway.

(See B Police Report #275814)

3) I have proof the trash on my side of the hallway is Susana Vexler’s trash not mine.

(See photos #5 of Susana Vexler’s trash on my side of the hallway)

Notice how the trash is blocking my entrance and my exit to and from my apartment. It is not blocking Susana Vexler’s entrance and exit to and from her apartment.

4) Susana Vexler refuses to keep her trash on her side of the hallway.

(See photos #6A, #6B, #6C, and #6D of Susana Vexler ripping up the “fair placement of trash” tape I put on the floor and on the rail of the hallway we share)

For the last two years she leaves her trash on my side of the hallway. It sits there for days before she puts it into the dumpster. Her trash blocks my entrance and exit to and from my apartment and attracts coach roaches into my home.
