Thanks to the Bully Culture
there are a lot more BAD people in this world than there are GOOD people in this world.

That being said
Most victims of bullying are besieged by Constant bouts of bullying.

This subjects the victim to being Ganged up upon and Gossiped about.

Consequently, the Bully Culture blames the victim for being a victim of bullying by claiming that the victim is making trouble for all of these so-called people

by having the "good slam-error-a-ton"
also known as the Good Samaritan who is a bully coward incognito accuse the victim of bothering people by saying, "You do not get along with people."

Victims just say back,
"I get along with GOOD people just fine.
It's BAD people I do not get along with."
